

Entegris Executives to Share Insights on the Fourth Industrial Revolution's Impact on the Semiconductor Industry at SEMICON West

July 3, 2018

BILLERICA, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 3, 2018-- Entegris, Inc. (NASDAQ: ENTG), a leader in specialty chemicals and advanced materials solutions for the microelectronics industry, today announced Sue Rice, senior vice president of human resources and Wenge Yang, vice president of market strategy, will be speaking at SEMICON West on the opportunities and challenges presented by the Fourth Industrial Revolution.

The Fourth Industrial Revolution is being driven by a confluence of emerging disruptive technologies including artificial intelligence, robotics, autonomous vehicles, and the Internet of Things (IoT), all of which have significant implications for the semiconductor industry. In addition to the science and technology breakthroughs necessary to support Fourth Industrial Revolution trends, cultivating top STEM talent will be essential for the semiconductor industry to drive ongoing innovation. Entegris executives will share the company's perspective on both technology and human capital requirements.

Entegris executives will be featured at:

- The Smart Workforce Pavilion – Rice will present on "Mentoring for Success" on Wednesday, July 11 at 2:30pm PDT at the Meet the Experts Theatre, Moscone North
- The Smart Transportation Pavilion – Yang will present on "Materials & Packaging for Automotive" on Thursday, July 12 at 11:30 am PDT at the Meet the Experts Theatre, Moscone North

Entegris is also a sponsor of the 2018 Smart Workforce Pavilion at SEMICON West, and is participating in a variety of activities within the pavilion including a "Smart Connections: A Day in the Life of an Engineer" session with Entegris production supervisor, Ryan Loofs, on Wednesday, July 11 at 1:30 pm PDT at the Smart Workforce Pavilion Meet the Experts Theater, Moscone North.
