

ENTEGRIS SUBSIDIARY ADOPTS SHARE RIGHTS PLAN

CHASKA/MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 26, 2005 – Entegris, Inc., (Nasdaq: ENTG) announced today that, in accordance with the terms of its Merger Agreement with Mykrolis Corporation and as contemplated by the joint proxy statement of the companies regarding the merger, the Board of Directors of its wholly-owned subsidiary, Eagle DE, Inc. (“Entegris Delaware”), has adopted a share rights plan. The rights under the plan will not be issued until after the effective time of the merger.

Share Rights Plan

Under the share rights plan, the Board of Directors of Entegris Delaware has declared, subject to the merger becoming effective, a dividend of one preferred share purchase right on each share of common stock of Entegris Delaware that will be outstanding on August 8, 2005 to shareholders of record at the close of business on that date. The rights will expire on August 8, 2015. Each right will entitle shareholders of Entegris Delaware, the surviving corporation in the merger (which will be renamed Entegris, Inc.), to buy one-hundredth of a share of a series of preferred stock at an exercise price of $50, subject to adjustment. The rights will generally become exercisable only after a person or group acquires beneficial ownership of 15 percent or more of the common stock or announces a tender or exchange offer that would result in that person or group beneficially owning 15 percent or more of the common stock, subject to possible extension. If any person or group becomes an owner of 15 percent or more of the common stock, each right will entitle its holder – other than the 15 percent shareholder – to purchase, at the right’s then-current exercise price, shares of the corporation’s common stock having a value of twice the exercise price.

In addition, if the corporation is acquired in a merger or other business combination transaction or sells 50 percent or more of its assets or earnings power, each right will generally entitle its holder to purchase, at the right’s then-current exercise price, common shares of the acquiring company having a market value of twice the right’s exercise price.

In certain circumstances, the corporation may exchange the rights for shares of its common stock or delay or temporarily suspend exercisability of the rights. The corporation may redeem rights at $0.01 per right, subject to adjustment, at any time before a person or group becomes the beneficial owner of at least 15 percent of the corporation’s common stock.

The rights dividend will be effective only if the merger is consummated. Following consummation of the merger, a letter will be sent out to shareholders of record on the record date outlining further details of the share rights plan.
