As previously disclosed, on January 27, 2019, Entegris, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Versum Materials, Inc. (“Versum”), providing for, subject to the terms and conditions therein, (1) the merger of Versum with and into Entegris (the “Merger”), with Entegris surviving and continuing as the surviving corporation in the Merger, and, (2) at the effective time of the Merger, the conversion of each outstanding share of common stock of Versum (other than shares owned by Versum (excluding any such shares owned by a Versum benefit plan or held on behalf of third parties)) into the right to receive 1.120 shares of common stock of the Company, plus cash in lieu of any fractional shares that otherwise would have been issued.

On April 8, 2019, Versum announced that its Board of Directors had received a revised proposal from Merck KGaA to acquire Versum and that Versum intended to terminate the Merger Agreement with Entegris and enter into a definitive agreement with respect to Merck’s proposal. On April 12, 2019, the Company received a termination notice from Versum terminating the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Entegris has received a $140 million termination fee from Versum.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the full text of the Merger Agreement, which was previously filed as Exhibit 2.1 to the Current Report on Form 8-K with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission by the Company on January 29, 2019, and is incorporated by reference herein.
