Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 6, 2018, Entegris, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), entered into a Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) with SAES Getters S.p.A., an Italian joint stock company (“Parent”). The Purchase Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions thereof, the Company will acquire the gas purification business of the Parent (the “Pure Gas Business”), principally operated through SAES Pure Gas, Inc. (“SPG”), a California corporation and wholly-owned, indirect subsidiary of the Parent. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the Company will acquire all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of SAES Getters/U.S.A., Inc. (“SUSA”), a Colorado corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent, whose sole asset as of the closing (other than minute books and similar corporate records) will be all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of SPG. Prior to the closing, SUSA will transfer all of its assets and liabilities that are unrelated to the Pure Gas Business to an affiliate of Parent (the “Pre-Closing Restructuring”). The Company will also indirectly acquire the assets and employees through which Parent operates the Pure Gas Business in the People's Republic of China. The Purchase Agreement provides that the Company will pay an aggregate consideration of $355 million in cash to acquire the Pure Gas Business on a debt-free basis, subject to customary purchase price adjustments.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of the parties. The closing of the transaction is subject to the completion of the Pre-Closing Restructuring and other customary closing conditions. The waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 for the transaction has expired. From the date of the Purchase Agreement until the closing of the transaction, the Parent is required to operate the Pure Gas Business in the ordinary course and comply with certain covenants regarding operation of the business. In addition, in connection with entry into the Purchase Agreement, Parent and the Company have agreed to enter into certain agreements upon the closing of the transaction, pursuant to which Parent will, among other matters, provide certain services to accommodate the transition of the Pure Gas Business and continue supplying certain products manufactured by Parent for use in the Pure Gas Business.

A copy of the Purchase Agreement is filed herewith as Exhibit 2.1 and incorporated by reference herein. This summary of certain terms of the Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement. The Purchase Agreement has been filed to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other information about the Company, Parent or the Pure Gas Business. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Purchase Agreement were made only for the purposes of such agreement and as of specified dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to such agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. In addition, the assertions embodied in the representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Purchase Agreement are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged, which have been omitted pursuant to Item 601(b) (2) of Regulation S-K. Accordingly, investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants as characterizations of the actual state of facts. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company’s public disclosure.

(c) Following receipt of the Proposed Closing Balance Sheet and the Proposed Closing Certificate, the Stockholder may review the same and, within thirty (30) days after the date of such receipt, may deliver to Buyer a certificate setting forth its specific objections, if any, to the Proposed Closing Balance Sheet and the amounts set forth in the Proposed Closing Certificate, together with a summary of the reasons therefor and calculations which, in the view of the Stockholder, are necessary to eliminate such objections (the “Objection Certificate”). If the Stockholder does not deliver an Objection Certificate within such thirty (30) day period, the Proposed Closing Balance Sheet and the amounts set forth in the Proposed Closing Certificate shall be deemed to be final and binding as the Final Closing Balance Sheet, the Final Closing Working Capital, the Final Closing Cash, the Final Closing Accrued Taxes and the Final Closing Settlement Amounts for purposes of this Agreement. In the event that the Stockholder does deliver an Objection Certificate within such thirty (30) day period, the specific items identified in the Objection Certificate shall be deemed to be in dispute and all other undisputed portions of the Proposed Closing Balance Sheet and the undisputed amounts set forth in the Proposed Closing Certificate shall be deemed to be final and binding among the Parties.

(d) If the Stockholder delivers an Objection Certificate within such thirty (30) day period, Buyer and the Stockholder shall each use reasonable efforts to resolve by written agreement (the “Agreed Adjustments”) any disputes as to the Proposed Closing Balance Sheet and the amounts set forth in the Proposed Closing Certificate. If the Stockholder and Buyer so resolve any (but not all) such disputes, the agreed-upon portions of the Proposed Closing Balance Sheet and the Proposed Closing Certificate shall be deemed to be final and binding among the Parties. If the Stockholder and Buyer so resolve all such disputes, the Proposed Closing Balance Sheet and the Proposed Closing Certificate, as adjusted by the Agreed Adjustments, shall be deemed to be final and binding as the Final Closing Balance Sheet, the Final Closing Working Capital, the Final Closing Cash, the Final Closing Accrued Taxes and the Final Closing Settlement Amounts for purposes of this Agreement.

(e) If any objections raised by the Stockholder in the Objection Certificate are not resolved by Agreed Adjustments within the thirty (30) day period following Buyer’s receipt of the Objection Certificate then, within seven (7) Business Days after the end of such thirty (30)-day period, the objections that remain unresolved (the “Disputed Items”), together with any supporting documentation as either Buyer or the Stockholder may choose to submit, shall be submitted by the Stockholder and Buyer for final binding resolution to the Independent Accountant. The Independent Accountant shall act as an accounting expert and not as an arbitrator, and shall issue a final and binding resolution with respect to all Disputed Items. Buyer and the Stockholder agree to execute, if requested by the Independent Accountant, a reasonable engagement letter, and shall use reasonable efforts to cause the Independent Accountant to issue its written determination as to such Disputed Items, which shall be within the range of the respective positions taken by each of Buyer and the Stockholder, within twenty (20) Business Days after such Disputed Items have been so submitted to the Independent Accountant, and the determination by the Independent Accountant as to the resolution of all such Disputed Items will be final and binding among the Parties and shall not be subject to dispute, appeal, Proceeding or challenge for any reason, absent fraud or manifest error. The costs and expenses of the Independent Accountant shall be borne and paid by either the Buyer Parties (jointly and severally, on the one hand) or the Stockholder (on the other hand) as determined by the Independent Accountant (with the Independent Accountant being instructed by the Parties to assign responsibility for its costs and expenses on a pro rata basis based upon the degree to which the Independent Accountant has accepted the respective positions of Buyer and the Stockholder, which shall be determined by the Independent Accountant and set forth in the final determinations prepared by such Independent Accountant). The Proposed Closing Balance Sheet, the Proposed Closing Working Capital, the Proposed Closing Cash, the Proposed Closing Accrued Taxes and the proposed Settlement Amounts, after giving effect to any Agreed Adjustments and to the resolution of Disputed Items by the Independent Accountant, shall be deemed to be final and binding as the Final Closing Balance Sheet, the Final Closing Working Capital, the Final Closing Cash, the Final Closing Accrued Taxes and the Final Closing Settlement Amounts for purposes of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the procedures set forth in this Section 2.03 shall be the sole and exclusive remedy with respect to the final determination of the Final Closing Balance Sheet, the Final Closing Working Capital, the Final Closing Cash, the Final Closing Accrued Taxes and the Final Closing Settlement Amounts.

(f) Each Party hereto shall make available to the other Parties and, if applicable, the Independent Accountant, such books, records and other information as any of the foregoing may reasonably request to prepare and review the Pre-Closing Estimated Balance Sheet and the various amounts set forth in the Estimated Closing Certificate, the Proposed Closing Balance Sheet and the various amounts set forth in the Proposed Closing Certificate or any Disputed Items submitted to the Independent Accountant.

(g) If any of the Final Closing Working Capital, the Final Closing Cash, the Final Closing Accrued Taxes or any component of the Final Closing Settlement Amounts (as finally determined pursuant to Section 2.03(c), (d) or (e) hereof) differs from the estimated amounts thereof set forth in the Estimated Closing Certificate, the Net Proceeds and the Seller Party Proceeds shall be recalculated using such final figures in lieu of such estimated figures. Promptly (but not later than five (5) Business Days) after the final and binding determination of the Final Closing Balance Sheet and such recalculated amounts pursuant to this Section 2.03:

(i) If the Seller Party Proceeds as recalculated pursuant to this Section 2.03(g) is less than the estimated Seller Party Proceeds set forth in the Estimated Closing Certificate, the Stockholder will pay to Buyer, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to such bank account(s) as Buyer shall designate in writing to the Stockholder, the amount of such shortfall.

(ii) If the Seller Party Proceeds as recalculated pursuant to this Section 2.03(g) is greater than the estimated Seller Party Proceeds set forth in the Estimated Closing Certificate, the Buyer Parties will, jointly and severally, pay to the Stockholder, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to such bank account(s) as the Stockholder shall designate in writing to Buyer, the amount of such excess.

Section 2.04 Tax Withholding. The Buyer Parties shall be entitled to (i) deduct and withhold (or cause to be deducted or withheld) from any consideration payable pursuant to the Transaction Documents to the Seller Parties or any other Person such amounts, if any, as are required to be deducted or withheld therefrom or in connection therewith under any applicable Tax Law or legal requirement and (ii) to require any necessary Tax forms, including Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 or the applicable series of IRS Form W-8, as applicable, or any similar information, from the Seller Parties or any other Person to whom a payment is required to be made pursuant to the Transaction Documents. Buyer shall provide the Stockholder with prompt written notice reasonably detailing any amounts required to be deducted or withheld from any consideration payable pursuant to this Agreement or the Transaction Documents and shall identify the applicable Tax Law under which the deduction or withholding is required, provide the Seller Parties with the opportunity to furnish any necessary Tax forms in order to avoid or reduce such withholding in advance of Buyer deducting or withholding from any consideration payable pursuant to this Agreement or the Transaction Documents; provided that such opportunity does not subject the Buyer Parties or any other Person to any potential liability to a relevant Taxing Authority for any claimed withholding and payment or otherwise result in adverse Tax consequences to the Buyer Parties. To the extent such amounts are so deducted or withheld, such amounts shall be timely remitted to the proper Governmental Authority and shall be treated for all purposes under the Transaction Documents as having been paid to the Seller Party or to the Person, respectively, to whom such amounts would otherwise have been paid.

ARTICLE III

The Disclosure Schedules are arranged in Sections corresponding to the numbered and lettered Sections of this Article IV, and the disclosures in any Section of the Disclosure Schedules shall provide information regarding, and qualify only, the corresponding numbered and lettered Section of this Article IV, unless and to the extent that (a) cross references to other Sections are set forth in the Disclosure Schedules or (b) it is reasonably apparent due to the nature of the disclosure that such disclosure qualifies one or more of the numbered or lettered Sections of this Article IV.

(c) Other than SPG (which is a wholly-owned Subsidiary of SUSA), neither Acquired Company (i) has any Subsidiaries, (ii) owns or has the right to acquire any capital stock of, or any equity securities in, any other Person or (iii) has agreed or is under any current or prospective obligation to make any capital contribution to or investment in any Person. This Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which the Seller Parties are a party constitute the valid and legally binding obligation of the Seller Parties, enforceable against the Seller Parties in accordance with their respective terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar Laws affecting creditors' rights generally and general principles of equity (whether considered in equity or at law).

Section 4.03 Non-Contravention; Consents and Notices.

(a) Neither the execution or delivery of this Agreement or any of the other Transaction Documents to which any Seller Party is a party, nor the consummation by the Seller Parties of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby will (with or without notice or lapse of time or both):

(i) conflict with or violate any provision of the articles or certificate of incorporation (or equivalent charter document), bylaws (or equivalent governing document) or other organizational or governance documents of any Acquired Company or any Seller Party;

(iv) result in the creation or imposition of any Encumbrance (other than Permitted Encumbrances) or Restrictions upon any of the SUSA Shares, the Purchased Assets or the assets or properties of the Acquired Companies.

(b) Except for those Consents, Permits and notices set forth on Section 4.03(b) of the Disclosure Schedules, and except as is required under the HSR Act, none of the Seller Parties nor any Acquired Company are required to give any notice to, make any filing or registration with, or obtain any Consent or Permit from, any Person or Governmental Authority in connection with the Transaction or the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which any Seller Party is a party, and the performance of its obligations hereunder and thereunder.

The SUSA Shares are fully paid and non-assessable and were issued in compliance with all Laws and not in violation of any preemptive rights. The Stockholder is the sole record and beneficial owner of, and has good, valid and marketable title to, all of the SUSA Shares, free and clear of all Encumbrances or any other restrictions on transfer (other than Permitted Encumbrances of the type described in clause (f) of the definition thereof) and all Restrictions. (e) Section 4.04(e) of the Disclosure Schedules lists the current directors and officers of each Acquired Company.

Section 4.05 No Brokers. Section 4.06 Permits. Each Acquired Company and, solely with respect to the Business, the China Asset Seller has all Permits which are necessary to entitle it to own, lease, operate and use its assets and properties and to carry on and conduct the Business as currently conducted (which Permits, to the extent transferable, are included in the Purchased Assets), except for such incidental Permits which would be readily obtainable by any qualified applicant without undue burden or except where the failure to hold such Permits would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to adversely affect the value, financial condition, assets (tangible or intangible), conduct of operations or results of operations of the Business (in each case, taken as a whole) in any material respect. Each Acquired Company and, solely with respect to the Business, the China Asset Seller is in compliance in all material respects with all such Permits applicable to the Business and each such Permit is in full force and effect. To the Knowledge of the Business, no event has occurred that, with or without notice or lapse of time or both, would reasonably be expected to result in the revocation, suspension or limitation of any of such Permits. Section 4.06 of the Disclosure Schedules lists each Permit that is held in respect of the Business that is material to the value, financial condition, assets (tangible or intangible), conduct of operations or results of operations of the Business (in each case taken as a whole).

Section 4.07 Assets.

(a) Each Acquired Company has good and valid title to, or valid and enforceable leasehold interests in, all of the assets and properties used in the Business (other than the Purchased Assets, the Stockholder Retained Assets and those assets the access to which is provided under the Transition Services Agreement in accordance with the express terms therein), free and clear of all Encumbrances (other than Permitted Encumbrances). The China Asset Seller has good and valid title to all of the Purchased Assets, free and clear of all Encumbrances (other than Permitted Encumbrances).

(b) The buildings, plants, structures, equipment and other assets of the Acquired Companies, as well as the Purchased Assets, are in reasonably good operating condition and repair (excluding ordinary wear and tear due to normal operations requiring routine maintenance and repairs that are not material in nature or cost), and are adequate for the uses to which they are being put.

(c) The assets and properties of the Acquired Companies, together with the Purchased Assets, are sufficient for the conduct of the Business as currently conducted and, after the Closing, to conduct the Business in materially the same manner conducted prior to the Closing; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 4.07(c) shall be deemed to constitute a representation and warranty as to the adequacy of the amounts of any Cash and Cash Equivalents or Working Capital (or the availability of the same).

Section 4.08 Intellectual Property.

(a) Section 4.08(a) of the Disclosure Schedules sets forth all of the following Intellectual Property owned by an Acquired Company in connection with the Business as of the date hereof: (i) issued Patents and pending Patent applications; (ii) registered and material unregistered Trademarks and applications therefor; (iii) registered copyrights and applications therefor; and (iv) domain names (collectively, the “Acquired Intellectual Property”). Any and all renewal and maintenance fees, annuities or other fees payable to any Governmental Authority to maintain the foregoing Intellectual Property as active and due prior to the Closing Date have been paid in full. The Acquired Companies have taken all reasonable measures to protect the proprietary nature of each item of Acquired Intellectual Property, and to maintain in confidence all Confidential Information, that they own or use. To the Knowledge of the Business, all of the foregoing registered Acquired Intellectual Property is valid, subsisting and enforceable in accordance with applicable Law.

(b) Each Acquired Company acknowledges that it has possession and rightful exclusive ownership of the Company IP at the time of the Closing. To the Knowledge of the Business, each Acquired Company has good and valid title to the Company IP, free and clear of all Encumbrances (other than Permitted Encumbrances). (c) Section 4.08(c) of the Disclosure Schedules contains a complete and correct list of all Intellectual Property that is not owned by the Acquired Companies, but is used in connection with the Business (other than Commercially Available Software), including all Trademarks that are owned by a Seller Party and used in connection with the Business as of the date hereof (other than any Trademarks included in the Acquired Intellectual Property). The China Asset Seller does not (i) own any Intellectual Property used in or necessary for the operation of the Business as currently conducted or (ii) have any right to use any Company IP. No Acquired Company is in material breach of any agreement or any other license pursuant to which it licenses any Intellectual Property from a third party.

(d) No Company IP is the subject of any Proceeding and, to the Knowledge of the Business, no Proceeding is threatened against any Acquired Company involving any Company IP. Within the last three (3) years, there have been no claims by any employee, independent contractor or other third party asserting ownership to any Company IP.

To the Knowledge of the Business, no Person is infringing, misappropriating, violating or otherwise conflicting with any Acquired Intellectual Property.

(g) Immediately following the Closing, no Intellectual Property necessary for the continued conduct of the Business after the Closing in materially the same manner conducted prior to the Closing will be owned or licensed by either Seller Party (and all such Intellectual Property shall be owned or licensed, as the case may be, by the Acquired Companies).

(h) To the extent that any of the Company IP has been created by employees of the Business within the scope of their employment by the Acquired Companies or the Seller Parties, as relevant, or by independent contractors of the Business, as relevant, such individuals have executed agreements expressly assigning all right, title and interest in such Company IP to an Acquired Company, and have provided in writing an irrevocable, perpetual waiver in favor of such Acquired Company of the moral rights in all works authored by him or her.

Section 4.09 Compliance with Laws; Proceedings.

(a) The Acquired Companies and, solely with respect to the operation of the Business and the Purchased Assets, the Seller Parties, are in compliance, in all material respects, with all applicable Laws or Orders. During the five (5) year period prior to the Closing Date, no Acquired Company nor, solely with respect to the operation of the Business or the Purchased Assets, any Seller Party has received any notice, whether written or, to the Knowledge of the Business, oral, from any Governmental Authority indicating that it is or may be in material violation of any Law. No investigation by any Governmental Authority regarding a material violation of any such Law is pending or, to the Knowledge of the Business, threatened.

(b) As of the date hereof, there are no Proceedings pending or, to the Knowledge of the Business, threatened against any Acquired Company or, solely with respect to the operation of the Business and the Purchased Assets, any Seller Party that (i) would reasonably be expected to adversely affect the value, financial condition, assets (tangible or intangible), conduct of operations or results of operations of the Business (in each case, taken as a whole) in any material respect or (ii) questions the legality of, or could prevent the consummation of, the Transaction.

Section 4.10 Taxes.

(a) All material Tax Returns required to have been filed by or on behalf of the Acquired Companies and, solely with respect to the Business, the Seller Parties, have

No Acquired Company nor, solely with respect to the Business, any Seller Party, has requested an extension of time within which to file any Tax Return in respect of any fiscal year, which has not since been filed.

(c) No audit, investigation or other action with respect to Taxes of any Acquired Company or the Business is currently pending or the subject of written notification received by any Acquired Company or, solely with respect to the Business, any Seller Party, and to the Knowledge of the Business, no such action or proceeding is being contemplated.

(d) There are no Encumbrances for Taxes upon the assets of any Acquired Company or the Purchased Assets except, in each case, for Permitted Encumbrances.

(e) Each Acquired Company and, solely with respect to the Business, each Seller Party, has, in accordance with all Tax withholding, employment, social security and other similar provisions of applicable Laws, (i) timely and properly withheld and paid all Taxes required to have been withheld and paid in connection with any amounts paid by such Acquired Company or Seller Party to any employee or independent contractor of the Business or any other Persons, and (ii) complied with all material reporting requirements (including maintenance of required records with respect thereto) with respect to such payments.

(f) No Acquired Company nor, solely with respect to the Business, any Seller Party, is delinquent in the payment of any Tax, nor is there any Tax deficiency outstanding, assessed or proposed in writing against an Acquired Company nor, solely with respect to the Business, any Seller Party. No Taxing Authority has raised a material dispute or made a material claim in relation to any Tax liability of any Acquired Company nor, solely with respect to the Business, any Seller Party, other than a claim for a deficiency for Taxes that has been resolved and paid in full.

(g) No Acquired Company nor, solely with respect to the Business, any Seller Party, (i) has any potential liability for any material Tax or any portion of a Tax (or any amount calculated with reference to any portion of a Tax) of any Person other than the Acquired Companies, including under Treasury Regulations Section 1.1502-6 (or any similar provision of state, local or non-U.S. Law), as transferee or successor, or by contract, intercompany account system or otherwise, (ii) has been a member of an affiliated group filing consolidated income or franchise Tax Returns (except for the group of which SUSA is the common parent) for U.S. federal, state or non-U.S. Tax purposes, (iii) has been a party to a Tax sharing, indemnification or allocation agreement or (iv) has ever been a party to any joint venture, partnership or other arrangement that is properly treated as a partnership for Tax purposes.

(h) No written claim has been made by any Governmental Authority, during the five (5) year period prior to the Closing Date, in a jurisdiction where any Acquired Company or, solely with respect to the Business, any Seller Party has not paid Taxes or filed Tax Returns such that any Acquired Company or Seller Party is or may be subject to Taxation by, or required to file any Tax Return in, that jurisdiction.

(i) Each Acquired Company that is formed under the Laws of the United States is not subject to Tax in any jurisdiction, other than the United States, by virtue of having a permanent establishment, fixed place of business, or otherwise.

(j) None of the Seller Parties that is organized outside of the United States (i) is engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within the United States or is treated as or considered to be so engaged within the meaning of Section 864 of the Code, or (ii) has a direct investment in "United States property" within the meaning of Section 956(c) of the Code.

(k) No Acquired Company is or has, in the five year period ending on the date hereof, been a "United States Real Property Holding Corporation" within the meaning of Section 897 of the Code.

(l) Seller Parties have made available to Buyer Parties true and correct copies of all material income or franchise Tax Returns filed by any Acquired Company for each of the fiscal years starting in 2014.

Section 6.13 Tax Matters.

(a) Pre-Closing Tax Periods; Tax Returns. In connection with the preparation of Tax Returns, audits, inquiries, examinations and any administrative or judicial Proceedings relating to any Tax liabilities imposed on or in respect of the Acquired Companies, the Purchased Assets or the Business for all taxable periods ending on or before the Closing Date (“Pre-Closing Tax Periods”), Buyer Parties, on the one hand, and the Seller Parties, on the other hand, shall cooperate fully with each other, including the furnishing or making available during normal business hours of records, personnel (as reasonably required), books of account, powers of attorney or other materials necessary or helpful for the preparation of such Tax Returns, the conduct of audits, inquiries, examinations and any administrative or judicial proceedings or the defense of claims by Taxing Authorities as to the imposition of Taxes and any assessment or reassessment in respect of Taxes. The Stockholder shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, and timely file, or cause to be timely filed, all income Tax Returns of the Acquired Companies for any Pre-Closing Tax Period that are filed with any Taxing Authority before or after the Closing Date. Such Tax Returns shall be true, correct and complete in all material respects and accurately set forth all items to the extent required to be reflected or included in such Tax Returns by applicable Federal, state, local or non-U.S. Tax Laws. Such Tax Returns shall be prepared on a basis consistent with those prepared for prior taxable periods unless a different treatment of any item is required by applicable Law. Stockholder shall deliver only those Tax Returns of the Acquired Companies which are filed after the Closing to Buyer for its review and comment at least thirty (30) days prior to the applicable filing deadline, and shall consider in good faith all reasonable comments provided by Buyer with respect thereto. The Stockholder shall (or shall cause its relevant Affiliates to) timely pay to the appropriate Taxing Authority all Taxes shown on any Tax Return filed pursuant to this Section 6.13(a) as and when required by Law, except to the extent such Taxes are accrued for or counted as a liability in the calculation of the Net Proceeds as is finally determined in accordance with Section 2.03 hereof.

(b) Amendments of Pre-Closing Tax Returns. No Buyer Parties, nor any of their respective Affiliates, shall amend, refile, revoke or otherwise modify any Tax Return or Tax election of the Acquired Companies with respect to any Pre-Closing Tax Period without the prior written consent of the Stockholder (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned). After the Closing Date, one or more of the Seller Parties may amend, refile or revoke or otherwise modify any Tax Return or Tax election of any Acquired Company or the China Asset Seller with respect to any Pre-Closing Tax Period: (i) without the consent of any Buyer Parties, provided that such amendment, refiling, revocation or modification does not adversely affect the Tax liability of any Acquired Company or the China Asset Buyer for any taxable year (or portion thereof) beginning after the Closing Date; and (ii) with the prior written consent of the Buyer Parties (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned), if such amendment, refiling, revocation or modification may reasonably adversely affect the Tax liability of any Acquired Company or the China Asset Buyer for any taxable year (or portion thereof) beginning after the Closing Date.

(c) Straddle Periods. In the case of any Taxes of the Acquired Companies, the Purchased Assets or the Business that are payable with respect to any Tax period beginning before the Closing Date and ending after the Closing Date (each a “Straddle Period”), the portion of any such Taxes attributable to the pre-Closing portion of such Straddle Period shall: (i) in the case of Taxes that are either (A) based upon or related to income or receipts or (B) imposed in connection with any sale, transfer or assignment or any deemed sale, transfer or assignment of property (real or personal, tangible or intangible), be deemed equal to the amount that would be payable if the Tax year or period ended on the Closing Date; and (ii) in the case of Taxes (other than those described in clause (i) above) that are imposed on a periodic basis with respect to the Acquired Companies, the Purchased Assets or the Business, or otherwise measured by the level of any item, be deemed to be the amount of such Taxes for the entire Straddle Period (or, in the case of such Taxes determined on an arrears basis, the amount of such Taxes for the immediately preceding Tax period) multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of calendar days in the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date and the denominator of which is the number of calendar days in the entire Straddle Period. For purposes of clause (i) of the preceding sentence, any exemption, deduction, credit or other item (including the effect of any graduated rates of Tax) that is calculated on an annual basis shall be allocated to the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date on a pro rata basis determined by multiplying the total amount of such item allocated to the Straddle Period times a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of calendar days in the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date and the denominator of which is the number of calendar days in the entire Straddle Period. All determinations necessary to give effect to the foregoing allocations shall be made in a manner consistent with the past practice of the Acquired Companies. In the case of Tax Returns to be filed with respect to a Straddle Period, the Buyer Parties shall, except as otherwise required by applicable Law, prepare such Tax Returns in a manner consistent with past practice, and timely file such Tax Returns with the applicable Taxing Authority, provided that, with respect to any Tax Returns addressed by this Section 6.13(c) that includes Pre-Closing Taxes, Buyer Parties shall deliver any such Tax Return to the Stockholder for its review at least thirty (30) days prior to the date such Tax Return is required to be filed (including extensions) and the Buyer Parties shall consider in good faith comments provided by Stockholder with respect thereto. The Stockholder shall promptly pay to the Buyer Parties all Pre-Closing Taxes shown on any Straddle Period Tax Return filed pursuant to this Section 6.13(c), except to the extent such Taxes are accrued for or counted as a liability in the calculation of the Net Proceeds as is finally determined in accordance with Section 2.03 hereof.

(d) Records Relating to Pre-Closing Tax Periods. Seller Parties shall provide Buyer Parties with all Tax Returns (and other information relating to Taxes, including all Tax work papers, accounting workpapers relating to Taxes and files) of or relating solely to the Acquired Companies. The Seller Parties and the Buyer Parties shall (and the Buyer Parties shall cause the Acquired Companies to) (i) retain all books and records with respect to Tax matters pertinent to the Acquired Companies, the Business and the Purchased Assets relating to any taxable period beginning before the Closing Date until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations (and, to the extent notified by the Stockholder or Buyer to the other Party, any extension thereof) for the respective taxable periods, and to abide by all record retention Laws and agreements entered into with any Taxing Authority, and (ii) give the other Party reasonable written notice prior to transferring, destroying or discarding any such books and records and shall allow the notified Party to take possession of such books and records, other than any information that the notifying Party reasonably believes to be privileged.

(e) Certain Taxes. Subject to the provisions in Section 6.22(c), all transfer, documentary, sales, use, stamp, registration, value added and other such Taxes and fees (including any penalties and interest) incurred in connection with the Transactions contemplated by this Agreement (but expressly excluding (i) any Taxes attributable to the Pre-Closing Restructuring which shall be borne by the Seller Parties and (ii) any China VAT which shall be payable solely by the Buyer Parties, jointly and severally, as provided in Section 6.19 in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Local China Purchase Agreement and the payment of the China Asset Purchase Price as contemplated therein) (collectively, “Transfer Taxes”), will be paid and borne fifty percent (50%) by the Seller Parties and fifty percent (50%) by the Buyer Parties; provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, any Transfer Taxes that would not have been imposed but for the failure of a Party (or any of its Affiliates) to meet any material or formal requirement with which such Party (or any of its Affiliates) is legally eligible to comply under applicable Law shall be borne one hundred percent (100%) by the Party who fails (or whose Affiliate fails) to so comply. The purchase prices hereunder shall be exclusive of all applicable Transfer Taxes. Subject to the provisions of Section 6.13(f) and Section 9.02, all necessary Tax Returns and other documentation with respect to Transfer Taxes will be prepared and filed when due by the Party primarily or customarily responsible under the applicable local Law for filing such Tax Returns and other documentation, and such Party will use its commercially reasonable efforts to provide such Tax Returns or other documentation to the other Party at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the due date. For the avoidance of doubt, Section 6.13(b) and (c) shall not apply for any Tax Returns for Transfer Taxes. Each Party shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the amount of such Transfer Taxes that is mutually agreeable and in compliance with applicable Law, cooperate in the preparation, execution (to include joining such returns where required) and filing of all such Tax Returns and other documentation, and permit any such Transfer Taxes to be assessed and paid in accordance with applicable Law.

(f) Refunds and Credits.

(i) If either the Buyer Parties or the Seller Parties (the “Paying Party”) pays a Tax for which the other (the “Non-Paying Party”) is liable in accordance with Article VI or Section 9.02 of the Agreement, the Paying Party shall be entitled to reimbursement from the Non-Paying Party in accordance with this Section 6.13(f)(i). Upon payment of any such Tax, the Paying Party shall present a statement to the Non-Paying Party setting forth the amount of reimbursement to which the Paying Party is entitled, together with such supporting evidence as is reasonably necessary to calculate the amount to be reimbursed. The Non-Paying Party shall make such reimbursement promptly, in immediately available funds, but in no event later than ten (10) Business Days after the presentation of such statement.

(ii) Any Tax refund received by any Buyer Parties or any Acquired Company (or any of their respective Affiliates) within four (4) years following the Closing Date, and any amounts credited against any Tax to which any Buyer Party or any Acquired Company (or any of their respective Affiliates) shall become entitled, which refund or credit relates to a Pre-Closing Tax Period or the pre-Closing portion of any Straddle Period (the “Pre-Closing Tax Refunds and Credits”), shall be for the account of the Seller Parties. Any Pre-Closing Tax Refunds and Credits due and owing to a Seller Party pursuant to this Section 6.13(f)(ii) shall be paid by the Buyer Parties within ten (10) Business Days after receipt or utilization thereof by bank wire transfer of immediately available funds; provided, however, that Buyer may offset the amount of any Pre-Closing Tax Refund and Credit payable hereunder by the amount of any Tax liabilities due and owing to the Buyer Parties pursuant to Stockholder’s indemnification obligations set forth in Section 9.02 (to the extent that such indemnification claims have been resolved in favor of the Buyer Parties pursuant to Section 6.13(g) and Section 9.05 below). In addition, the Buyer Parties shall pay, or cause to be paid, to the Seller Parties an amount equal to any refund of Taxes that would have been payable to the Seller Parties pursuant to this Section 6.13, except that such refund was used to pay or credited against Post-Closing Taxes. Any Post-Closing Tax refunds that are received by Seller Parties or any of its Affiliates, and any amounts credited against Post-Closing Taxes to which Seller Parties or any of their Affiliates becomes entitled, shall be for the account of Buyer Parties. Each Party shall pay, or cause to be paid, to the other Party an amount equal to such refund or credit within ten (10) Business Days after receipt or utilization thereof by bank wire transfer of immediately available funds. If any refund, credit or offset of Taxes described in this Section 6.13(f)(ii) that is paid, offset or credited to a Party is subsequently reduced or disallowed as a result of an audit, such Party that received the payment, offset or credit shall promptly pay the amount so reduced or disallowed to such other Party.

(g) Tax Audits and Contests.

(i) After the Closing, unless Buyer has previously received written notice from Stockholder, Buyer shall promptly notify the Stockholder in writing within ten (10) Business Days of receipt of any demand, claim or notice of the commencement of an audit or administrative or judicial proceeding involving any asserted Tax liability or refund with respect to any Acquired Company, the Purchased Assets or the Business relating to Taxes (“Contest”) that are or may be the Seller Parties’ responsibility under this Agreement (“Seller Contest”) received by any Buyer Party, any Acquired Company or any Affiliate of any of the foregoing, but failure to give such notice shall not relieve the Seller Parties of any liability hereunder except to the extent, if any, that the rights of Seller Parties with respect to such claim are actually prejudiced. Unless the Stockholder has previously received written notice from Buyer, Stockholder shall promptly notify Buyer of the existence of any Seller Contest within ten (10) Business Days from the receipt by Seller Parties of any written notice of such Seller Contest. The notices described in this paragraph shall contain factual information (to the extent known) describing the asserted Tax liability and shall include copies of the relevant portion of any notice or other document received from any Governmental Authority or any other Person in respect of any such asserted Tax liability.

(ii) Stockholder shall have the right to control, through counsel of its own choosing and expense, the conduct of any Seller Contest, including those that relate to any Acquired Company for a Pre-Closing Tax Period or of the China Asset Seller. The Buyer Parties shall have the right to participate in (but not control) any Seller Contest at their own expense if such Seller Contest reasonably could be expected to result in (A) a Tax liability for any Buyer Party or any Acquired Company, or (B) otherwise adversely affect any Buyer Party, any Acquired Company or the Business, in each case, for any taxable year (or portion thereof) beginning after the Closing Date. The Stockholder shall not settle, compromise and/or concede any portion of any Seller Contest in a manner that adversely affects the Tax liability of any Buyer Party, any Acquired Company or the Business for any taxable year (or portion thereof) beginning after the Closing Date without the prior written consent of Buyer (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned). If Stockholder elects not to control the conduct of any Seller Contest, (x) Seller Parties shall fund any deposit or other payment of Tax that is required in order for the Buyer Parties or their Affiliates to pursue such Seller Contest; provided, however, that no such requirement shall apply if Stockholder instructs Buyer not to pursue the Seller Contest and acknowledges its obligation to indemnify the Buyer Parties for the asserted liability, and (y) Buyer Parties may not settle, compromise and/or concede any portion of such Seller Contest in a manner that adversely affects the Tax liability of any Acquired Company or the Business for any Pre-Closing Tax Period or for the pre-Closing portion of the Straddle Period without the prior written consent of Stockholder (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned).

(iii) Buyer Parties shall have the right to control, in their sole discretion, the conduct of any Contest that is not a Seller Contest.

(h) If, upon a full or partial conclusion, settlement or other disposition of a Seller Contest, a Taxing Authority assesses Taxes that are indemnifiable by the Stockholder pursuant to this Agreement, (A) Buyer shall provide the Stockholder a written notice setting forth the amount of such Tax assessment (to the extent the Stockholder has not otherwise received such information), (B) the Stockholder shall, within fifteen (15) Business Days of its receipt of Buyer's written notice under (A) (or of the day it receives such information), pay such Taxes either to the Taxing Authority directly (and furnish Buyer with written proof of payment) or to Buyer in accordance with the payment and distribution method reasonably acceptable to Buyer, and (C) the limitations and other provisions set forth in Article IX (other than Section 9.04 and Section 9.05) shall otherwise apply to such Tax claims.

(i) Section 336/338 Tax Elections. The Stockholder and Buyer agree that no Party shall be permitted to make an election, if permitted, under either Code Section 336(e) or 338(h)(10) (or any corresponding election under state, local or non-U.S. Law) in respect of the Transaction.

Section 6.14 Employee Matters.

(a) Effective as of the Closing Date, the China Asset Seller will terminate the employment of each individual who is employed by the China Asset Seller in connection with the Business (including each such employee who is not actively at work on account of illness, disability or leave of absence) and who is listed on Schedule 6.14(a) hereto (the “Transferring China Employees”) and the China Asset Buyer will enter into a written employment agreement with each Transferring China Employee. For the avoidance of doubt, except for the Assumed Liabilities and all liabilities accrued for or counted as a current liability in the calculation of Working Capital, the China Asset Seller shall be solely responsible for any and all liabilities in relation to the Transferring China Employees that arise or relate to the period on or prior to the Closing Date, including any such liability incurred in connection with the termination of the employment of such Transferring China Employees and/or the transfer of such Transferring China Employees’ employment. Accordingly, on the Closing Date, the China Asset Seller shall pay to each Transferring China Employee an annual leave compensation for the accrued paid annual leave time that was earned but unused by such Transferring China Employee prior to the Closing Date in accordance with applicable Chinese Law. Such employment shall be consistent with the terms of any collective labor agreement applicable to any of the Transferring China Employees and shall be on terms and conditions not less favorable than those in effect for such Transferring China Employees immediately prior to the Closing. With respect to Transferring China Employees, the China Asset Buyer shall give full credit for the term of employment with the China Asset Seller and for all purposes (and, for the avoidance of doubt), each such Transferring China Employee’s years of service with the China Asset Seller will be merged with and into such Transferring China Employee’s years of service with the China Asset Buyer for purposes of eligibility, vesting and benefit levels, including, without limitation, for the purpose of calculation of severance pay where necessary (but not in a way that gives past service credit for benefit accrual purposes for (i) the Long-Term Retention Award plan or (ii) any non-statutory plan adopted by the Buyer Parties following the Closing). Transferring China Employees, all of the employees of the Acquired Companies as of the Closing (including each employee who is not actively at work on account of illness, disability or leave of absence), and Cristian Landoni (solely to the extent that Mr. Landoni resigns his employment with the Stockholder immediately prior to the Closing) shall collectively be referred to as the “Acquired Employees”.

(b) For a period commencing on the Closing Date and ending no earlier than the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Closing Date, the Buyer Parties shall (and shall cause their respective Affiliates, including the Acquired Companies to) take all action necessary so that each Acquired Employee shall receive base wages or salary, bonus opportunity, and Benefit Programs, all of the foregoing considered in the aggregate (a “Compensation Package”) that is comparable to the Compensation Package received by similarly situated employees of the Buyer Parties and their Affiliates (other than the Acquired Companies) at the time; provided, however, that the Buyer Parties shall cause SPG to maintain the Annual Incentive Plan for SPG (cash bonus) (as referred to in Schedule 4.18) for the 2018 performance (calendar) year; and further provided that, with respect to any Acquired Employee whose employment is terminated by any Buyer Party or any Acquired Company on or prior to the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Closing Date, the Buyer

Parties shall (or shall cause their respective Affiliates, including the Acquired Companies to) provide such Acquired Employee with severance benefits on terms and conditions that are no less favorable than (A) those severance benefits available to such Acquired Employee under the Acquired Company Plans, or (B) those severance benefits available to similarly situated employees of the Buyer Parties or any of their respective Affiliates, whichever is more favorable.

(c) Each Buyer Party shall (and shall cause its respective Affiliates, including the Acquired Companies to):

(i) credit Acquired Employees with all service credited to such Acquired Employees as of the Closing Date in addition to service earned with any Buyer Party or any Acquired Company after the Closing Date for purposes of eligibility and vesting and, solely with respect to the amount of any vacation, sick days, severance, layoff and similar benefits, levels of accruals of benefits under Benefit Programs;

(ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to waive any pre-existing condition exclusions, evidence of insurability requirements, actively at work requirements or waiting periods for participation and coverage applicable under Benefit Programs with respect to Acquired Employees and their dependents; and

(iii) use commercially reasonable efforts to credit Acquired Employees with any amounts paid under a plan maintained by any Seller Party (or any of their respective Affiliates, including any Acquired Company) prior to the Closing Date for purposes of satisfying any applicable deductible, coinsurance or out-of-pocket requirements for the plan year that includes the Closing Date as if such amounts had been paid under a corresponding Benefit Program.

(d) Each Buyer Party shall (and shall cause its respective Affiliates, including the Acquired Companies to) provide, honor and recognize all accrued but unused vacation (excluding any annual leave compensation paid pursuant to Section 6.14(a)) with respect to Acquired Employees as of the Closing Date.

(e) As of the Closing Date, each Acquired Company shall terminate its participation in each Plan that is not an Acquired Company Plan and each Acquired Employee shall cease to participate in any Plan, and in no event shall any Acquired Employee be entitled to accrue any benefits under such Plans with respect to services rendered or compensation paid on or after the Closing Date. The Seller Party that sponsors or maintains each such Plan shall retain all liabilities and obligations under such Plan. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 6.14(e), the Acquired Employees shall continue to participate in the Seller Party's U.S. medical and health plans to the extent provided and on the terms set forth in the Transition Services Agreement.

(f) Seller Parties and all appropriate Buyer Parties shall take commercially reasonable efforts to permit Acquired Employees to make rollover contributions of "eligible rollover distributions" (within the meaning of Section 401(a)(31) of the Code) of the account balance (including in the case of loans, rollovers of notes in-kind) distributable to Acquired Employees from the 401(k) plan of the Seller Party in which they participate, to a Section 401(k) defined contribution plan of a Buyer Party. Seller Parties shall cause an Acquired Company to pay to each Acquired Employee in cash in a lump sum on or before the Closing Date an amount equal to the amount of such Acquired Employee's accrued Profit Sharing Contribution under the Seller Party's 401(k) plan for the period through May 31, 2018, as taxable compensation.

(g) Notwithstanding anything set forth herein to the contrary, (i) the Parties do not intend for this Agreement to, and this Agreement shall not, amend any Plans or arrangements or create any rights or obligations except between the Parties, (ii) this Section 6.14 is not intended to create any rights in any Person who is not a party to this Agreement, and no Acquired Employee or other current or former employee of the Acquired Companies or the Business (including any beneficiary or dependent thereof) or any other Person not a party to this Agreement shall be entitled to assert any claim hereunder, and (iii) nothing in this Agreement shall create any obligation on the part of any Buyer Party or any of their respective Affiliates to continue the employment of any Acquired Employee with any Acquired Company or any Buyer Party for any definite period following the Closing Date.

(h) Seller Parties shall cause SPG to pay to Timothy Johnson in cash in a lump sum on or before the Closing Date a bonus in an amount equal to the amount (i) of the severance due to Mr. Johnson in connection with termination of his employment as further set forth in the Employment Agreement with Mr. Johnson referenced on Schedule 4.14(a)(vii) plus (ii) the amount accrued with respect to Mr. Johnson under the SPG Annual Incentive Plan (cash bonus) through the latest payroll cutoff date prior to the Closing. Notwithstanding anything else herein, the parties agree that the Stockholder shall bear full economic responsibility for any payment to be made to Timothy Johnson arising from his termination of employment.

Section 6.15 Acquired Company Names.

(a) Not later than twelve (12) months following the Closing Date, the Buyer Parties shall, and shall cause their respective Affiliates (including the Acquired Companies) to: (i) cease using the names SAES and SAES Pure Gas in all respects; (ii) amend or terminate any certificate of assumed name or "doing business as" filing so to eliminate its right to use, and all references to, SAES and SAES Pure Gas, and (iii) amend the articles or certificate of incorporation of SAES Pure Gas, Inc. to change the name therein to a name not including or confusingly similar to SAES.

(b) Prior to the Closing (and in connection with the Pre-Closing Restructuring), the Stockholder shall amend the articles or certificate of incorporation of SUSA to change the name therein to a name that is mutually agreeable to the Stockholder and the Buyer that does not include the same SAES or any name confusingly similar thereto.

Section 6.16 Director and Officer Indemnification.

(a) For six (6) years after the Closing Date, the Buyer Parties shall cause the Acquired Companies to indemnify and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, all past and present directors, officers and employees of the Acquired Companies to the same extent such Persons are indemnified or have the right to advancement of expenses as of the Closing Date by the Acquired Companies pursuant to the Acquired Companies' certificate of incorporation and bylaws (or similar organizational documents) in existence on the Closing Date with, or for the benefit of, any such directors, officers and employees for acts or omissions occurring on or prior to the Closing Date.

(b) In the event of a liquidation or dissolution of one or more of the Acquired Companies, or in the event that all or substantially all of the assets or all of the shares of capital stock of one or more of the Acquired Companies are sold, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions, then Buyer will ensure that the successors and assigns of such Acquired Companies (including the parent company of any Acquired Company in the event of a liquidation or dissolution) assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.16.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 10.07, the provisions of this Section 6.16 are intended to be for the benefit of, and will be enforceable by, each indemnified party, his or her heirs and his or her Representatives and are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other right to indemnification or contribution that any such Person may have by contract or otherwise.

Section 6.17 Records. Except as otherwise provided in Section 6.13(d), with respect to the financial books and records and minute books of the Acquired Companies and the Business (or otherwise relating to the Purchased Assets or Assumed Liabilities) relating to matters on or prior to the Closing Date, to the extent the originals of such books and records have actually been transferred and delivered to the Buyer Parties: (a) for a period of seven (7) years after the Closing Date, the Buyer Parties shall not cause or permit their destruction or disposal without first offering to surrender them to the Stockholder; and (b) where there is a legitimate purpose, including an audit, assessment or reassessment of the Stockholder or any Affiliate thereof by the IRS or any other Taxing Authority or Governmental Authority, or any Proceeding involving the Stockholder or any Affiliate thereof or a claim or dispute relating to this Agreement, the Buyer Parties shall (and shall cause their respective Affiliates, including the Acquired Companies to) allow the Stockholder and its Affiliates and Representatives reasonable access to such books and records during regular business hours. Without limiting the foregoing, following the Closing the Buyer Parties and their respective Affiliates (including, following the Closing, the Acquired Companies) shall provide the Stockholder and its Affiliates and Representatives with all financial, accounting and corporate information of, or relating to, the Acquired Companies or the Business reasonably required by the Stockholder (including, without limitation, granting to the Stockholder, its Affiliates and Representatives indirect access to Hyperion Financial Management (HFM) system) in order to allow the Stockholder to complete its 2018 consolidated financial statements (quarterly, semiannual and annual) that include the Acquired Companies (up to and until the Closing Date) and have the same audited. To the extent the originals of such books and records have not been transferred and delivered to the Buyer Parties: (a) for a period of seven (7) years after the Closing Date, the Seller Parties shall not cause or permit their destruction or disposal without first offering to surrender them to the Buyer Parties; and (b) where there is a legitimate purpose, including an audit, assessment or reassessment of the Buyer Parties or any Affiliate thereof by the IRS or any other Taxing Authority or Governmental Authority, or any Proceeding involving the Buyer Parties or any Affiliate thereof or a claim or dispute relating to this Agreement, the Seller Parties shall (and shall cause their respective Affiliates to) allow the Buyer Parties and their Affiliates and Representatives reasonable access to such books and records during regular business hours. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 6.17, nothing herein shall require (x) any Party to provide information that is privileged if the disclosure is reasonably expected to result in the loss of such privilege and (y) any Seller Party to provide any Buyer Party (or any Affiliate thereof) with any information, documents or records that do not primarily relate to the Business. Any information obtained under this Section 6.17 and Section 6.13(d) shall be kept confidential, except (i) as may be otherwise necessary in connection with the filing of Tax Returns or claims for refund or in conducting an audit or other proceeding or defending any Tax claim, (ii) with the consent of Seller Parties or Buyer Parties, as the case may be or (iii) to the extent contemplated in subclause (A), (B) or (C) of Section 6.12(a)(iv).

Section 6.18 Intellectual Property Matters.

(a) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Closing Date, the Seller Parties shall, and shall cause their applicable Affiliates to reasonably cooperate with the Buyer Parties: (i) in preparing and obtaining all documents (including assignment forms) with the United States Patent and Trademark Office or other corresponding Governmental Authority, as necessary to record one of the Buyer Parties is the sole legal and record owner of the Acquired Intellectual Property (such documents, the “IP Documents”); (ii) filing all IP Documents; and (iii) to deliver to the Buyer all prosecution files and dockets, registration certificates and litigation files to the extent relating to the Acquired Intellectual Property, in each case, solely to the extent such materials are in the possession of the Seller Parties and not already in the possession of a Buyer Party (including an Acquired Company). The costs and expenses (including filing fees) associated with the activities and actions described in this Section 6.18(a) shall be borne fifty percent (50%) by the Seller Parties and fifty percent (50%) by the Buyer Parties.

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Closing Date, the Stockholder shall, and shall cause the Seller Parties to, deliver to one of the Buyer Parties all tangible embodiments of Company IP reasonably in the possession of a Seller Party that was not (i) otherwise delivered at Closing or (ii) in the possession of one of the Acquired Companies.

Section 6.19 Special VAT Invoice. The China Asset Seller shall issue valid value-added tax (“China VAT”) special invoices to the China Asset Buyer with respect to the China Closing Date Payment and the Deferred China Asset Purchase Price (which shall be paid in accordance with Section 6.22 hereof and the Local China Purchase Agreement) in accordance with PRC Law (the “China VAT Invoices”). China Asset Buyer shall pay an additional amount of cash to the China Asset Seller equal to the total China VAT reflected on the China VAT Invoices for payment to the appropriate PRC Taxing Authorities by the China Asset Seller.

Section 6.20 Employee Separation Notification. Buyer Parties shall promptly notify Stockholder of the separation from service (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code) from the Buyer Parties and their Affiliates of any of the following employees of the Acquired Companies: Paul Menigoz and Paul Scherle.

Section 6.21 Agreements Concerning Bonus Payments. In accordance with Section 2.02(b)(iii), at the Closing, Buyer Parties shall transfer to the payroll account of SPG or, solely with respect to the Transferring China Employees, the China Asset Buyer an amount equal to that portion of the Bonus Payments (and related payroll Taxes) set forth in written instructions that will be delivered by the Stockholder not less than two (2) Business Days prior to the Closing. Thereafter, the Buyer Parties shall cause SPG or the China Asset Buyer, as applicable, to remit and pay such amounts to the employees of SPG, the applicable Transferring China Employees and the relevant Taxing Authorities entitled thereto pursuant to written instructions delivered by the Stockholder to the Buyer Parties within thirty (30) days following the Closing Date. Buyer Parties shall cause SPG or the China Asset Buyer, as applicable, to pay the amounts set forth in such instructions on the next regularly scheduled payroll date of SPG or the China Asset Buyer reasonably following delivery of such instructions and cause SPG or the China Asset Buyer to remit any payroll Taxes required to be withheld from such Bonus Payments in accordance with applicable Laws. Any such portion of the Bonus Payments (and related payroll Taxes) for which instructions are not delivered by Stockholder within thirty (30) days following the Closing Date shall be paid to the Stockholder, in one (1) lump-sum payment by wire transfer of immediately available funds, promptly thereafter. The Stockholder shall indemnify, defend and hold the Buyer Parties and their respective Affiliates harmless from and against any and all Losses arising out of, resulting from or relating to any payments or remittances made or not made pursuant to (i) this Section 6.21 or (ii) any instructions delivered by Stockholder as described in this Section 6.21, except to the extent any such additional Losses other than Taxes result from the negligent or willful failure of the Buyer Parties to properly withhold, remit or report the amount of any applicable Taxes with respect to any Bonus Payments.

Section 6.22 Increase of China Asset Buyer's Registered Capital; Payment of Deferred Portion of China Asset Purchase Price.

(a) Each of the Buyer Parties shall use commercially reasonable efforts to complete, as promptly as practicable following the Closing, the filing, registration and other formalities with the competent commerce authority and market regulation authority in the PRC (the "China Regulatory Authorities") as are reasonably necessary and required in order to increase the China Asset Buyer's registered capital for the purpose of funding the Deferred China Asset Purchase Price in accordance with the Local China Purchase Agreement (such increase to capital, the "China Capital Infusion"). Buyer shall provide the Stockholder with regular updates concerning the efforts to complete the China Capital Infusion as promptly as practicable following the Closing (including, without limitation, by providing the Stockholder with written notice within forty-eight (48) hours of the occurrence of any fact, event change, circumstance or development that would or would be reasonably expected to (i) negatively impact the ability of Buyer to complete the China Capital Infusion or (ii) delay in any material respect the completion of the China Capital Infusion).

(b) Once Buyer has received the requisite consents and/or permissions from the China Regulatory Authorities to complete the China Capital Infusion, Buyer shall promptly provide copies of the same to the Stockholder for review and consideration. If the Stockholder finds such consents and/or permissions to be acceptable and in order, the Stockholder shall return to Buyer (by wire transfer of immediately available U.S. funds) the amount of the Deferred China Asset Purchase Price within five (5) Business Days after the Stockholder's receipt of such consents and/or permissions. Thereafter, Buyer and the China Asset Buyer will complete the China Capital Infusion and the China Asset Buyer shall pay to the China Asset Seller the amount of the Deferred China Asset Purchase Price in accordance with the terms of the Local China Purchase Agreement. The China Capital Infusion and payment of the Deferred China Asset Purchase Price by the China Asset Buyer must be completed within ten (10) Business Days following Buyer's receipt of the returned funds from the Stockholder.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the China Capital Infusion and the payment of the Deferred China Asset Purchase Price by the China Asset Buyer to the China Asset Seller has not occurred, for any reason, on or before the seventy-fifth (75th) calendar day following the Closing, the Stockholder may (in its sole and exclusive election) either: (i) continue to hold the amount of the Deferred China Asset Purchase Price in anticipation of the completion of the China Capital Infusion (in which event the provisions of Section 6.22(b) above shall continue to apply until such time as the Stockholder elects to proceed under clause (ii) of this Section 6.22(c), which the Stockholder may elect to do at any time thereafter); or (ii) retain the full amount of the Deferred China Asset Purchase Price (in which event the obligation of the China Asset Buyer under the Local China Purchase Agreement with respect to the payment of the China Asset Purchase Price shall be deemed to have been fully satisfied); provided that in the event that (x) each of the Buyer Parties is in full compliance with the provisions set forth in this Section 6.22 and (y) the Stockholder does not return to Buyer the amount of the Deferred China Asset Purchase Price within 125 days following the Closing, then the Stockholder will have been automatically deemed to have made the election under clause (ii) above. In the event that the Stockholder elects to retain the full amount of the Deferred China Asset Purchase Price pursuant to this Section 6.22(c), either (A) the Parties shall amend the Local China Purchase Agreement to reduce the China Asset Purchase Price to an amount equal to the China Closing Date Payment made by the China Asset Buyer at Closing, and such amended China Asset Purchase Price shall apply for all purposes under this Agreement (and the Deferred China Asset Purchase Price will be allocated to Buyer's acquisition of the Acquired Companies) or (B) if the China Asset Purchase Price is not amended, the Deferred China Asset Purchase Price for all purposes under applicable Law (including U.S. federal income tax purposes), shall be treated as a payment from the China Asset Buyer to the China Asset Seller as a portion of the purchase price for the Purchased Assets, unless such treatment is contrary to applicable Law, and the Stockholder shall bear and pay all China VAT incurred in connection with the Deferred China Asset Purchase Price.

ARTICLE VII

(b) no Proceeding shall be pending with, or proposed or threatened in writing by, any Governmental Authority or Person against any Buyer Party, any Seller Party or the Acquired Companies (or any of their respective Affiliates) that would reasonably be expected to result in the issuance of any executive order, decree, temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other order that would cause the condition set forth in Section 7.01(a) hereof to not be satisfied.

(c) The Pre-Closing Restructuring shall have been completed in accordance with Section 6.11.

(b) The Stockholder and its Affiliates shall have performed and complied in all material respects with each of the agreements and covenants required to be performed or complied with by it under this Agreement on or prior to the Closing Date.

(c) Since the date of this Agreement, there shall not have occurred any Material Adverse Effect.

(b) The Buyer Parties and their respective Affiliates shall have performed and complied in all material respects with each of the agreements and covenants required to be performed or complied with by it under this Agreement on or prior to the Closing Date.

(c) by either the Buyer Parties or the Stockholder, if (i) there shall be any Law enacted, promulgated or issued by any Governmental Authority that makes consummation of the Closing illegal or otherwise prohibited or (ii) any Governmental Authority shall have issued an Order permanently enjoining the Transaction, and such Order shall have become final and non-appealable;

(d) (i) by the Stockholder, if the Stockholder is not in material breach of its obligations under this Agreement and the Buyer Parties breach or fail to perform in any respect any of their representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement and such breach or failure to perform (A) would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.03, (B) cannot be or has not been cured prior to the earlier of (x) the Termination Date and (y) 15 days following delivery of written notice of such breach or failure to perform and (C) has not been waived by the Stockholder; or (ii) by the Buyer Parties, if the Buyer Parties are not in material breach of their obligations under this Agreement and the Stockholder breaches or fails to perform in any respect any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement and such breach or failure to perform (A) would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.02, (B) cannot be or has not been cured prior to the earlier of (x) the Termination Date and (y) 15 days following delivery of written notice of such breach or failure to perform and (C) has not been waived by the Buyer Parties; or

Any claim that has been asserted in accordance with Section 9.04 and that is pending on the date of the expiration of the applicable survival period set forth in the immediately preceding sentence may continue to be asserted and shall be indemnified against until fully and finally resolved, irrespective of whether the Party asserting such claim has initiated any Proceeding or otherwise taken any further action in connection with the matters constituting the basis for such claim.

Section 9.02 Indemnification of Buyer Parties. The Stockholder shall indemnify, defend and hold the Buyer Parties and their respective directors, shareholders, officers, employees, agents, Affiliates, successors and permitted assigns harmless from and against any and all Losses arising out of, resulting from or relating to (a) any breach or non-fulfillment of any covenant or agreement made by the Stockholder under this Agreement, (b) any inaccuracy in, misrepresentation of, or breach of the representations and warranties of the Stockholder contained in Article IV (as modified by the Disclosure Schedules), (c) any Excluded Liability, (d) any Pre-Closing Taxes, (e) Transfer Taxes payable by the Seller Parties under Section 6.13(e), (f) the Pre-Closing Restructuring, or (g) any Assumed Liability within the meaning of such term in the Pre-Closing Restructuring Purchase Agreement (including any Losses relating to the Onondaga Lake Superfund Site).

Section 9.03 Indemnification of the Stockholder. The Buyer Parties shall, jointly and severally, indemnify, defend and hold the Stockholder and its directors, shareholders, officers, employees, agents, Affiliates, successors and permitted assigns harmless from and against any and all Losses arising out of, resulting from or relating to (a) any breach or non-fulfillment of any covenant or agreement made by the Buyer Parties under this Agreement, (b) any inaccuracy in, misrepresentation of, or breach of the representations and warranties of the Buyer Parties contained in Article V, (c) any Assumed Liability, (d) Transfer Taxes payable by the Buyer Parties under Section 6.13(e) and (e) any Post-Closing Taxes (except for Post-Closing Taxes arising out of or resulting from a breach by the Stockholder of Sections 4.10, 6.01(b)(xiv), 6.01(b)(xx) or 6.13 of this Agreement for any Pre-Closing Tax Period or pre-Closing portion of a Straddle Period).

Section 9.04 Procedure.

(a) A Person seeking indemnification hereunder (other than in respect of a Contest to which Section 6.13 applies) (an “Indemnified Party”) shall give a written notice (a “Notice of Claim”) specifying the facts constituting the basis for its claim, and the applicable provision(s) of this Agreement upon which the Indemnified Party relies for its demand and a good faith estimate of the amount of the claim, to the Person(s) from whom indemnification is sought hereunder (an “Indemnifying Party”); provided, however, that any such Notice of Claim need only specify such information to the knowledge of the Indemnified Party as of the date of such Notice of Claim and shall not limit or prejudice any of the rights or remedies of any Indemnified Party on the basis of any limitations on the information included in such Notice of Claim, including any such limitations made in good faith to preserve the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or any other privilege. If the claim is not a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall have thirty (30) calendar days after delivery of the Notice of Claim to notify the Indemnified Party in writing of the nature and basis of its objection, if any, to the asserted claim for indemnification. If no such objection is received by the Indemnified Party within thirty (30) calendar days after delivery of the Notice of Claim, the claim shall be deemed to be allowed. If an objection is received by the Indemnified Party within thirty (30) calendar days after delivery of the Notice of Claim, the Parties shall resolve the dispute in accordance with Section 9.05.

(b) If an Indemnified Party is seeking indemnification because of a claim asserted by any claimant other than an Indemnified Party, the Indemnified Party shall deliver a Notice of Claim to the Indemnifying Party promptly after such assertion is actually known to the Indemnified Party; provided, however, that the right of a Person to be indemnified hereunder in respect of claims made or alleged by any such claimant (a “Third Party Claim”) (1) shall not be adversely affected by a failure to give such notice unless, and then only to the extent that, an Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced thereby, and (2) shall not be deemed time-barred or otherwise unavailable until at least thirty (30) days have passed following such Indemnified Party’s receipt of any notice regarding the Proceeding giving rise to such Third Party Claim (and any statute of limitations or common law principle that limits or purports to limit the availability of such right to indemnification shall be deemed tolled, to the extent necessary, until such thirty (30) day period has ended).

(c) The Indemnifying Party shall have the right, upon written notice to the Indemnified Party, to assume and conduct the defense of the Third Party Claim with counsel reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party and the Indemnified Party shall cooperate in good faith in such defense; provided that: (i) the Third Party Claim solely seeks (and continues to solely seek) monetary damages in an amount not reasonably expected to exceed any limitation on the amount of Losses for which the Indemnifying Party is responsible hereunder; and (ii) no conflict of interest arises that, under applicable principles of legal ethics, in the judgment of counsel to the Indemnified Party, would prohibit a single counsel from representing both the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party in connection with the defense of such Third Party Claim. The Indemnified Party may thereafter participate in (but not control) the defense of any such Third Party Claim with its own counsel at its own expense; provided, however, that if (A) any of the conditions described in clauses (i) or (ii) above fails to occur or ceases to be satisfied or (B) the Indemnifying Party fails to take reasonable steps necessary to defend diligently such Third Party Claim in the reasonable judgment of the Indemnified Party, then the Indemnified Party may assume its own defense, and the Indemnifying Party will be liable for all reasonable costs or expenses paid or incurred (including advancement thereof) in connection with such defense (subject to the limitations set forth herein).

(d) If the Indemnifying Party elects not to defend the Indemnified Party with respect to such Third Party Claim, or fails to notify the Indemnified Party of such election within ten (10) calendar days after receipt of the Notice of Claim, the Indemnified Party shall have the right, at its option, to assume and control defense of the matter in such manner as it may deem reasonably appropriate, and the Indemnifying Party will be liable for all reasonable costs or expenses paid or incurred (including advancement thereof) in connection with such defense (subject to the limitations set forth herein).

(e) The Indemnifying Party, if it has assumed the defense of any Third Party Claim as provided in this Agreement, may not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), consent to a settlement of, or the entry of any judgment arising from, any such Third Party Claim that (A) does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by the claimant or the plaintiff to the Indemnified Party of a complete release from all liability in respect of such Third Party Claim, (B) imposes any liability or obligation on the Indemnified Party that will not be fully indemnified by the Indemnifying Party pursuant hereto, (C) involves a finding or admission of any wrongdoing on the part of the Indemnified Party or (D) otherwise grants any injunctive or equitable relief. The Indemnified Party shall not have the right to settle any Third Party Claim, the defense of which has not been assumed by the Indemnifying Party or which is otherwise being defended by the Indemnified Party in accordance with the terms of this Section 9.04(e), without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

(f) Each of the Parties shall, and shall cause their Affiliates (and their respective Representatives) to, make available to the other(s) all relevant information in his, her or its possession relating to any such Third Party Claim which is being defended by the other Party and shall otherwise reasonably cooperate in the defense thereof. The Indemnified Party or Indemnifying Party, as the case may be, that is controlling such defense shall keep the other Party reasonably advised of the status of such Proceeding and the defense thereof and shall consider in good faith (but shall not be bound to implement or adopt) any recommendations made by the other Party with respect thereto. The Indemnifying Party shall be subrogated to the rights and claims of the Indemnified Party with respect to any Losses paid by the Indemnifying Party under this Article IX.

(g) Tax Claims. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, this Section 9.04 shall not apply to the conduct of a Contest (and related claims in connection therewith), which shall be governed exclusively by Section 6.13.

Section 9.05 Determination of Claims; Payment. A claim for indemnification under this Article IX shall be deemed finally determined upon the occurrence of any of the following: (a) it is deemed allowed under Section 9.04(a); (b) entry of any final judgment or award rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction and the expiration of time in which to appeal therefrom; (c) full execution of a settlement of a Third Party Claim in the manner and in accordance with the provisions set forth in Section 9.04(b); or (d) the execution by the Indemnifying Party and Indemnified Party of a mutually binding settlement agreement with respect to a claim. The Indemnifying Party shall be required to pay all of the sums so owing in respect of such finally determined claim to the Indemnified Party by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by the Indemnified Party within ten (10) Business Days after such final determination.

Section 9.06 Limitations on Indemnification.

(a) Except to the extent set forth in Section 9.06(c)(ii), the Stockholder shall not be required to provide indemnification for claims made under Section 9.02(b) unless the Indemnified Party's Losses for all such claim(s) shall exceed an amount equal to one-half percent (0.5%) of the Net Proceeds, as finally determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.03 hereof, in the aggregate and then only to the extent that the Losses exceed an amount equal to one-half percent (0.5%) of the Net Proceeds, as finally determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.03 hereof (it being the intent of the Parties that the foregoing be in the nature of a deductible) (the "Deductible"); provided, however, that the Deductible shall not apply to any Losses arising out of, resulting from or relating to any inaccuracy in, misrepresentation of, or breach of the representations and warranties contained in Sections 4.01 (Organization, Qualification and Power), 4.02 (Authorization; Enforceability), 4.04 (Capitalization), 4.05 (No Brokers), 4.07(a) (Absence of Encumbrances), or 4.10 (Taxes).

(b) Except to the extent set forth in Section 9.06(c)(ii), in no event shall the aggregate liability of the Stockholder with respect to all claims of indemnification made under Section 9.02(b), exceed an amount equal to twelve and one-half percent (12.5%) of the Net Proceeds, as finally determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.03 hereof, in the aggregate (the "Cap"); provided, however, that the Cap shall not apply to any Losses arising out of, resulting from or relating to (i) any inaccuracy in, misrepresentation of, or breach of the representations and warranties contained in Sections 4.01 (Organization, Qualification and Power), 4.02 (Authorization; Enforceability), 4.04 (Capitalization), 4.05 (No Brokers), 4.07(a) (Absence of Encumbrances), 4.10 (Taxes), or 4.21 (China Purchased Assets) or (ii) Pre-Closing Taxes.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement:

(i) in no event shall the maximum liability of the Stockholder under this Article IX exceed the amount of the Net Proceeds;

(ii) the limitations set forth in Section 9.06(a), (b) and (c)(i) above shall not apply in the event that the Stockholder or any of its Affiliates or, with respect to its activities prior to the Effective Time, any Acquired Company, is found to have committed fraud.

(iii) the Stockholder shall not be obligated to indemnify for Losses under this Article IX to the extent that such Losses were (A) accrued for or counted as a liability in the calculation of the Final Closing Working Capital or (B) otherwise reflected in the Settlement Amounts or an adjustment to the Net Proceeds in the manner contemplated in Section 2.03 hereof.

(d) For purposes of calculating the amount of Losses relating to a breach of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement (but not, for clarity, for purposes of determining whether a breach of any such representation or warranty has occurred for the purpose of Section 9.02 hereof), any qualification as to materiality or any other similar qualification or standard contained in Article IV of this Agreement shall be disregarded (it being understood that the word “Material” in the defined term “Material Contracts” and the qualification as to “Material Adverse Effect” in Section 4.12 shall not be disregarded for any purpose).

Section 9.07 Reductions for Insurance Proceeds and Other Recoveries.

(a) The amount that any Indemnifying Party is or may be required to pay to any Indemnified Party pursuant to this Article IX shall be reduced (retroactively or prospectively) to the extent of any insurance proceeds actually received by such Indemnified Party (net of deductibles or similar costs) in respect of such claim. The existence of a claim by an Indemnified Party for monies from an insurer or against a third party in respect of any Losses shall not, however, delay any payment pursuant to the indemnification provisions contained herein and otherwise determined to be due and owing by an Indemnifying Party. Rather, the Indemnifying Party shall make payment in full of the amount determined to be due and owing by it against an assignment by the Indemnified Party to the Indemnifying Party of the entire claim of the Indemnified Party for the insurance proceeds or against such third party. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, it is the intention of the Parties that no insurer or any other third party shall be (i) entitled to a benefit it would not be entitled to receive in the absence of the foregoing indemnification provisions, or (ii) relieved of the responsibility to pay any claims for which it is obligated. If an Indemnified Party has received the payment required by this Agreement from an Indemnifying Party in respect of any Losses and later receives insurance proceeds or other amounts in respect of such Losses, then such Indemnified Party shall hold such insurance proceeds or other amounts in trust for the benefit of the Indemnifying Party and shall pay to the Indemnifying Party, as promptly as practicable after receipt, a sum equal to the amount of such insurance proceeds or other amounts received, up to the aggregate amount of any payments received from the Indemnifying Party pursuant to this Agreement in respect of such Losses (or, if there is more than one Indemnifying Party, the Indemnified Party shall pay each Indemnifying Party its proportionate share (based on payments received from the Indemnifying Parties of such insurance proceeds)).

(b) Any calculation of Losses for purposes of this Article IX shall be reduced to take account of any net Tax benefit actually realized by the Indemnified Party as a result of any such Losses in the taxable year in which the indemnity payment is made in respect of the relevant claim. Any payment hereunder shall initially be made without regard to this Section 9.07(b) and shall be reduced to reflect any such net Tax benefit only after the Indemnified Party has actually realized such benefit. For purposes of this Agreement, the Indemnified Party shall be deemed to have “actually realized” a net Tax benefit to the extent that, and at such time as, the amount of Taxes required to be paid by the Indemnified Party is reduced below the amount of Taxes that it would have been required to pay but for deductibility of such Losses (treating any Tax items attributable to such Losses as the last items claimed for any taxable period). The amount of any reduction hereunder shall be adjusted to reflect any final determination with respect to the Indemnified Party’s liability for Taxes.

Section 9.08 Duty to Mitigate. Each Party agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate any Losses which form the basis for any claim under this Article IX; provided that the Indemnified Party shall not be obligated to make an insurance claim on its own policies if such claim would reasonably result in an increase in premiums.

Section 9.09 Sole and Exclusive Remedy. The remedies provided in this Article IX shall be the sole and exclusive remedies of the Parties and their respective officers, directors, employees, Affiliates, agents, Representatives, successors and assigns for any and all Losses arising out of, relating to, or resulting from, any breach of any of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement and any other agreement, instrument or document executed and delivered in connection herewith, or otherwise relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that nothing herein is intended to waive or otherwise limit any claims for Losses arising out of, relating to, or resulting from fraud, or waive any equitable remedies to which a Party may be entitled.

ARTICLE X

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 10.01 Expenses. Except for the Seller Antitrust Fees (for which the Stockholder will reimburse Buyer at the Closing), each of the Parties shall bear its respective expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents.

Section 10.02 No Assignment. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Party to this Agreement may assign its rights or delegate its obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of (a) Buyer, in the event of an assignment or delegation by the Stockholder, or (b) the Stockholder, in the event of an assignment or delegation by any Buyer Party; provided that any Party, may, without the consent of any other Party, (x) assign any or all of its rights and interests hereunder to one or more of its Affiliates, and/or (y) designate one or more of its Affiliates to perform its obligations under this Agreement; provided, however that no such assignment shall relieve such Party of its obligations hereunder. Any assignment or delegation in contravention of this Section 10.02 shall be null and void and of no force and effect.

Section 10.03 Entire Agreement, Integration, Modification and Waiver. This Agreement (including all Exhibits and Schedules attached hereto which are hereby incorporated herein and made a part of this Agreement as if set forth in full herein), together with the other Transaction Documents and the certificates or other instruments delivered hereunder or thereunder, constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior understandings of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof (including, for greater certainty, that certain Non-Binding Memorandum of Understanding, entered between the Stockholder and Buyer on December 4, 2017 and the Confidentiality Agreement, except to the extent incorporated herein). No supplement, modification or amendment of this Agreement will be binding unless executed in writing by Buyer (on behalf of all Buyer Parties) and the Stockholder. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement will be deemed to be or shall constitute a continuing waiver. No waiver will be binding unless executed in writing by the Party making the waiver.

Section 10.04 Headings. The headings and captions contained in this Agreement are included for purposes of convenience only, and will not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 10.05 Construction. The Parties have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. In the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement must be construed as if drafted jointly by the Parties and no presumption or burden of proof will arise favoring or disfavoring any Party by virtue of the authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement. Any reference to any federal, state, local or non-U.S. statute or Law will be deemed also to refer to all rules and regulations promulgated under such Law, unless the context requires otherwise. Whenever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation,” whether or not they are, in fact, followed by those words or words of like import. Terms defined in the singular shall include the plural and vice versa. The words “hereof,” “herein” and “hereunder” and words of like import used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. References to Articles, Sections, Exhibits and Schedules are to Articles, Sections, Exhibits and Schedules of this Agreement unless otherwise specified. All references to “$” or dollar amounts are to lawful currency of the United States of America.

Section 10.06 Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision will be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

Section 10.07 No Third Party Beneficiaries. Except as set forth in Section 6.16, this Agreement will not confer any rights or remedies upon any Person (including employees, consultants or contractors of any Acquired Company or any Seller Party except to the extent such Person is a Party hereto) other than the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

Section 10.08 Notices. All notices and other communications required or permitted under this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given when delivered in person one (1) Business Day after having been dispatched by a nationally recognized overnight courier service or three (3) Business Days after having been deposited, postage prepaid, certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, in the United States mail, or nationally-recognized overnight courier, to the appropriate Party at the address specified below:

Section 10.09 Governing Law. This Agreement and all matters, claims, controversies, disputes, suits, actions or proceedings arising out of or relating to this Agreement and the negotiation, execution or performance of this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby, including all rights of the Parties (whether sounding in contract, tort, common or statutory law, equity or otherwise) in connection therewith, shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the Laws of the State of

New York without regard to principles of conflicts of Law provision or rule (whether of the State of New York or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the Law of any jurisdiction other than those of the State of New York.

Section 10.10 Jurisdiction; Venue, Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) Each of the Parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and/or its property, to the exclusive jurisdiction of any New York state court or federal court of the United States of America sitting in the District of New York, and any appellate court from any thereof, in any Proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the negotiation, execution or performance of this Agreement or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and each of the Parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees (i) that all claims in respect of any such Proceeding may be heard and determined in any such New York state court or, to the extent permitted by Law, in such federal court, (ii) that a final judgment in any such Proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by Law, (iii) not to attempt to deny or defeat such jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from such New York state court or federal court, and (iv) not to bring or support any Proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any of the transaction contemplated by this Agreement (whether in contract, tort, common or statutory law, equity or otherwise) anywhere other than such New York state court or federal court. For the avoidance of doubt, the preceding sentence shall not limit the jurisdiction of the Independent Accountant as set forth in Section 2.03 and shall include any Proceeding brought for the purpose of enforcing the jurisdiction and judgments of the Independent Accountant.

(b) Each of the Parties irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any Proceeding arising out of or relating to the Agreement in any New York state or federal court. Each of the Parties irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by Law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such Proceeding in any such court.

(c) EACH OF THE PARTIES HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY. EACH OF THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE, SHE OR IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS CONTAINED IN THIS SECTION 10.10(C).

Section 10.11 Counterparts and Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and counterparts may be exchanged by electronic transmission (including in PDF format), each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which together constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 10.12 Releases. As of the Closing, (a) each of the Buyer Parties and their respective Subsidiaries (including, as of immediately following the Closing, the Acquired Companies) (each, a “Releasing Buyer Person”), hereby releases and forever discharges the Stockholder, the China Asset Seller and each of their respective Affiliates, successors, assigns, former, current or future direct or indirect stockholders, equity holders, controlling persons, directors, officers, employees, incorporators, managers, members, trustees, general or limited partners, agents, attorneys or other Representatives (in each case, solely in their capacities as such) (each, a “Released Seller Person”) from all debts, intercompany receivables and payables, demands, causes of action, suits, covenants, torts, damages and any and all claims, defenses, offsets, judgments, demands and liabilities whatsoever, of every name and nature, both at law and in equity, known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, that have been or could have been asserted against any Released Seller Person, that any Releasing Buyer Person has or ever had, that arises out of or in any way relates to events, circumstances or actions occurring, existing or taken prior to or as of the Closing Date in respect of matters relating to the Acquired Companies, the Purchased Assets or the Assumed Liabilities, and (b) each of the Stockholder, the China Asset Seller and their respective Subsidiaries (each, a “Releasing Seller Person”), hereby releases and forever discharges each Buyer Party and each of their respective Affiliates (including, as of immediately following the Closing, the Acquired Companies), successors, assigns, former, current or future direct or indirect stockholders, equity holders, controlling persons, directors, officers, employees, incorporators, managers, members, trustees, general or limited partners, agents, attorneys or other Representatives (in each case, solely in their capacities as such) (each, a “Released Buyer Person”) from all debts, intercompany receivables and payables, demands, causes of action, suits, covenants, torts, damages and any and all claims, defenses, offsets, judgments, demands and liabilities whatsoever, of every name and nature, both at law and in equity, known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, that have been or could have been asserted against any Released Buyer Person, that any Releasing Seller Person has or ever had, that arises out of or in any way relates to events, circumstances or actions occurring, existing or taken prior to or as of the Closing Date in respect of matters relating to the Acquired Companies, the Purchased Assets or the Assumed Liabilities; provided, however, that the Parties acknowledge and agree that this Section 10.12 does not apply to and shall not constitute a release of any rights or obligations to the extent arising from or under (i) commercial receivables and payables to third parties, (ii) this Agreement, (iii) any of the Transaction Documents, or (iv) any certificate or other instrument delivered by or on behalf of either Party pursuant to this Agreement.

Section 10.13 Disclaimer of Warranties. The Stockholder makes no representations or warranties with respect to any projections, forecasts or forward-looking information provided to any Buyer Party or any of their respective Affiliates. EXCEPT FOR THE REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES IN THIS AGREEMENT, ANY OTHER TRANSACTION DOCUMENT OR ANY CERTIFICATE DELIVERED HEREUNDER OR ANY OTHER AGREEMENT CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY, THE SELLER PARTIES ARE SELLING THE BUSINESS, THE PURCHASED ASSETS AND THE SUSA SHARES, IN EACH CASE, ON AN “AS IS, WHERE IS” BASIS AND THE SELLER PARTIES DISCLAIM ALL OTHER

WARRANTIES, REPRESENTATIONS AND GUARANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AND THE SELLER PARTIES MAKE NO REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY AS TO MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND NO IMPLIED WARRANTIES WHATSOEVER. Except as specifically referenced in this Agreement, any Transaction Documents or any certificate delivered hereunder or in the Disclosure Schedules, the Buyer Parties acknowledge that neither the Stockholder, nor any of its Representatives or Affiliates or any other Person, has made any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of any diligence materials heretofore made available by the Stockholder or any of its Representatives or Affiliates to the Buyer Parties, and neither the Stockholder nor any of its Representatives or Affiliates or any other Person will have or be subject to any liability to any Buyer Party, any Affiliate of any Buyer Party or any other Person resulting from the distribution of any such information to, or use of any such information by, any Buyer Party, any Affiliate of any Buyer Party or any of their respective agents, consultants, accountants, counsel or other Representatives, except any information provided by the Seller Parties, the Acquired Companies or any of their respective Affiliates, employees or Representatives constituting fraud.

Section 10.14 Certain Matters Regarding Representation of Acquired Companies and the Stockholder.

(a) The internal general counsel's office of the Stockholder, in concert with certain outside counsel, including Nixon Peabody LLP (such general counsel's office and outside counsel, collectively, "Sellers' Counsel"), has acted as counsel for the Stockholder and its Affiliates, including the Acquired Companies (the "Clients") for various matters prior to the Closing, including in connection with this Agreement, Transaction Documents and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby (the "Pre-Closing Engagements") and not as counsel for any other Person, including any Buyer Party or any of their respective Affiliates. Only the Clients shall be considered clients of Sellers' Counsel in the Pre-Closing Engagements. Accordingly, notwithstanding that the Clients are or were clients in the Pre-Closing Engagements, upon and after the Closing, all communications between any of the Clients and Sellers' Counsel in the course of the Pre-Closing Engagements shall be deemed to be attorney-client confidences that belong solely to the Stockholder and not to any Buyer Party or any of their respective Affiliates (including, after the Closing, the Acquired Companies), in each case so long as such communications would be subject to a privilege or protection if they were being requested in a Proceeding by an unrelated third party. The Buyer Parties and their respective Affiliates (including, after the Closing, the Acquired Companies) shall not have access to any such communications, or to the files of Sellers' Counsel relating to the Pre-Closing Engagements. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, notwithstanding that the Acquired Companies are or were clients of Sellers' Counsel in the Pre-Closing Engagements, upon and after the Closing (except with respect to any communications that would not be subject to a privilege or protection if they were being requested in a Proceeding by an unrelated third party), (i) the Stockholder and its Affiliates shall be the sole holders of the attorney-client privilege with respect to the Pre-Closing Engagements, and none of the Acquired Companies, the Buyer Parties or any of their respective Affiliates shall be a holder thereof, (ii) to the extent that files of Sellers'

Counsel in respect of the Pre-Closing Engagements constitute property of the Clients (including any Acquired Company), only the Stockholder and its Affiliates (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any Acquired Company) shall hold such property rights, and (iii) Sellers' Counsel shall have no duty whatsoever to reveal or disclose any such attorney-client communications or files to any Acquired Company, any Buyer Party or any of their respective Affiliates by reason of any attorney-client relationship between Sellers' Counsel and any Acquired Company or otherwise.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Parties recognize that it would be impracticable to try to purge all Client-privileged communications from the Acquired Companies' files and computer systems prior to the Closing, and so the Parties agree that no waiver is intended by leaving such documents where they are and the Buyer Parties and their respective Affiliates shall not be permitted to review any such documents, and the Buyer Parties agree that they and their respective Affiliates shall not be permitted to use any such documents in a manner adverse to the Stockholder in any indemnity or other dispute following the Closing.
