"I am delighted to have Jim on our board," said Bertrand Loy, president and CEO of Entegris. "Jim's experience at Qualcomm brings an important customer and industry perspective. I look forward to his contributions and his insight as a member of our board."

Paul Olson, chairman of the board of Entegris, added: "Through his career Jim has demonstrated a keen understanding of what it takes to succeed in a fast-paced technology industry, having played a key role in driving Qualcomm to be a technology powerhouse. I think his perspective on the industry will be an invaluable addition to the board."

"Entegris is increasingly viewed as an indispensable partner by the semiconductor industry's technology leaders," says Lederer. "I look forward to working with Bertrand and his leadership team to continue to drive growth and success at Entegris."

Mr. Lederer most recently served as Executive Vice President of Qualcomm Technologies, Inc. and General Manager of Qualcomm CDMA Technologies (QCT, semiconductor division). He retired from Qualcomm in January 2014. During his 18-year career at Qualcomm, Mr. Lederer also served in a number of senior management and finance roles. Prior to joining Qualcomm, Mr. Lederer held a variety of management positions at Motorola, General Motors and Scott Aviation. Mr. Lederer holds a B.S. degree in Business Administration (Finance/MIS) and an M.B.A. from the State University of New York at Buffalo, where he also serves on the Dean's Advisory Council for the School of Management.
